

L. L. Dempey of Williams spent Friday here.

William McIntire returned Wednesday from a trip to Phoenix.

H. C. Galloufe and wife of Chicago are registered at the Hotel Weatherford.

The Commercial Hotel will give a special Christmas dinner from 5 to 8 o'clock p. m. Tuesday.

Leslie Hart and Miss Lelah Reid of Jerome were married at Phoenix on Tuesday. The groom is well known in this county.

D. M. Riordan came in from Southern Arizona Wednesday and will remain during the holidays. Mr. Riordan is engaged in mining at present.

T. S. Bunch returned last night from a trip to Southern California. He is particularly impressed with the growth and prosperity of Graham county.

The county treasurer has been busy this week receiving taxes. Treasurer Hoxworth says that a goodly number of taxpayers allowed their taxes to become delinquent, and they will have to pay the five per cent penalty for neglecting to pay up within the time required by law.

F. M. Friesell of Pittsburgh, Pa., arrived yesterday. With David Barter as guide he will endeavor to make a trip in a small boat down the Colorado river. They will launch their boat at the foot of the Bright Angel trail some time next week, and it is hoped they will be successful in making the perilous trip.

The exercises of the Emerson High School attracted a number of visitors. An old-fashioned spelling match was one of the features. The pupils of the various departments of the school have been having exercises during the past week in chalk drawing on the blackboard, and their efforts were quite creditable. The school will have a two weeks' vacation.
